

Please stop the showing of Lost Honor. This movie is a political ad full of mis-truths and out right lies. Showing this propaganda creates divisiveness and is unfair. It also shows how the media can control people's thinking by presenting the information as true without stating the other side. The fact that your station is being forced to do this is itself against all tenants of democracy. Our family will be watching your decision and hope that you will do the right thing and the fair thing by not showing this inaccurate, one-sided political ad. Thank you. Stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
